NEW PAINTINGS
BEST OF SESOW (un-Sold)
Paintings (2000-2004)
Bulgaria (2002)
Paintings (2000-2001)
Solomon Islands and Bulgaria
Paintings (1994 - 1998)
Short Film
Shots from Shows
In the Studio
Interviews and Articles
Biography
Contact Sesow.com
Sesow.com

(PRESS RELEASE by DAVID HURD):

Matt's paintings release the tragedy and trauma of a life threatening accident he suffered as a child and transform them outpouring of raw emotional force. When Matt was eight years old, his predominant arm was severed by the propellor of a played on an air strip outside his home in Nebraska.

Self-taught and one-armed, Matt is a full-time artist and paints daily in a testament to the frailty of everyday living and a Described in the media under the various guises of "outsider" or "brut art," Matt describes himself as a "self-teaching" paintings he has produced since he began painting eleven years ago, he views as studies and training for wha

In his own words, "I am growing. I am accessible. I have an education. I am not just an outsider, but I've lived in
I am not just visionary, but I'll paint one thousand Buddha if I feel like it. Call me whatever you want. I
This is Matt's first solo exhibition in New York City, and it brings together hundreds of new works from over the

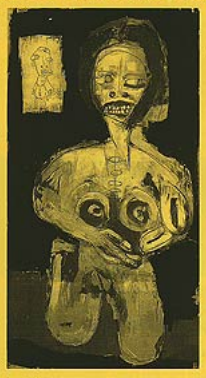

Matt has shown extensively throughout the United States including, the Contemporary Art Center of Virginia, Hear Paris Gibson Square Museum of Art (MT), Loveland Museum and Gallery (CO), Museum of the Southwest (TX), and the San Jose
In 2001, Matt was honored with a solo exhibition at the Corcoran Museum in Washington, D.C.

This limited run exhibition, curated by David Hurd, is being held only four blocks from the Outsider Art Fair, and will b

Big Cat Gallery is pleased to present hundreds of recent works by self-taught artist Matt Sesow.
The exhibition runs from January 22, 2004 through January 26, 2004, with a reception for the artist Thursday January 22nd fr Gallery hours are Thursday, 2-9 PM and Friday through Monday from noon until 7:00 p.m. Big Cat Gallery is located in Side at 28 East 2nd Street, between Bowery and Second Avenue.
###

front and back of flier handed out and hung in the East Village:

MATT SESOW
hundreds of recent paintings

BIG CAT GALLERY (28 E. 2ND ST.)

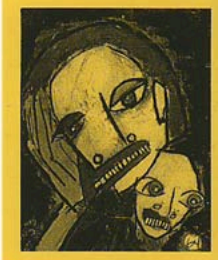

DAVID HURD and BIG CAT GALLERY present: MATT SESOW (hundreds of recent paintings)

Matt's paintings release the tragedy and trauma of a life threatening accident he sufferec a child and transform them in a vibrant and prolific outpouring of raw emotional force. When Matt was eight years old, his predominant arm was severed by the propellor of a l aircraft while he played on an air strip outside his home in Nebraska.

Self-taught and one-armed, Matt is a full-time artist and paints daily in a testament to the of everyday living and a celebration of his existence. Described in the media under the various guises of "outsider" or "brut art," Matt describes himself as a "self-teaching" artist The almost 4,000 paintings he has produced since he began painting eleven years ago, he views as studies and training for what lies ahead.

This is Matt's first solo exhibition in New York City, and it brings together hundreds of ne works from over the past six months. Matt has shown extensively throughout the United States including, the Contemporary Art Center of Virginia, Hearst Gallery (CA), Paris Gib Square Museum of Art (MT), Loveland Museum and Gallery (CO), Museum of the South and the San Jose Art League Gallery (CA). In 2001, Matt was honored with a solo exhib the Corcoran Museum in Washington, D.C.

This limited run exhibition, curated by David Hurd, is being held only four blocks from the Outsider Art Fair, and will be open throughout the Fair.

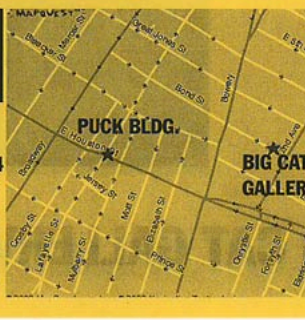

OPENING RECEPTION:
THURSDAY JANUARY 22, 6-9PM

hours:
THURSDAY 2-9PM, FRIDAY thru MONDAY 12-7PM
SHOW RUNS JANUARY 22 - JANUARY 26, 2004

BIG CAT GALLERY
28 east 2nd street
new york, ny 10003
ph: 212.982.6210

front and back of promotional postcard:

DAVID HURD AND BIG CAT GALLERY PRESENT:

hundreds of recent paintings

MATT SESOW

 JANUARY 22 - JANUARY 26, 2004 ***

OPENING RECEPTION:
THURSDAY JANUARY 22, 6-9PM

hours:
THURSDAY 2-9PM, FRIDAY thru MONDAY 12-7PM.

BIG CAT GALLERY
28 EAST 2ND STREET (btwn. bowery and 2nd ave)
NEW YORK, NY 10003
phone: 212.982.6210
email: bigcatgallery@earthlink.net
web: www.bigcatgalleryny.com

"Living on Lupins", oil on canvas paper, 66" x 36", 2004